rate is levied on all alike within the limits of the city. There is, however, one point which the Peak residents might urge in support of their case. This is that the riginal cost of the works which supply Victoria with water has been defrayed out of the general revenue of the colony, not out of the water rate account alone, for that would-have been insufficient for the purpose. On this ground the Peak residents might perhaps be able to make out a claim that ply should fall on the general revenue. It is at least a point that admits of argument. The point that residents at the Peak also pay rates in the town of course goes for nothing. Esting's as bad as drinking; and there aint nothing lik fresh air and the small of the woods: You shoul come out here in the spring, when the oak timbe is throwed and just sit down on a stick fres peeled—I means a trunk, you know-and ship up the scent of that there cak back. It goe right down your throat, and preserves you lungs as the tau does leather. And Eveleged so as folk who work in the tan yards: never have n liness. I never eat but two meals a day—broat fast and suppor, what you would call dinner -- an may be in the middle of the day a hunch of dr bread and an apple. I take a deal for breakfas and I be rather lear (hungry) at supper; but yo may lay your oath that's why I'm what I am the way of health. People stuff-themselves an by consequence it breaks out, you see." Free sir, exercise, frugal food and drink, the odour of the earth and of the trees—these have given him. as he nears his sixtieth year, the strongth and vitality-of early manhood.

A writer in the columns of a contemporary alluding to the longevity of horses, says:-- "But it would appear that after all India holds the honour of having possessed the longest-lived horse or pony known is equine a tuals. The Friend of India in 1843 reco. ds: 'Died a short time since, at the house of Bibee Kishori, the Tangon pony which was used by Mr. Hatch while employed as Judge of zillah Dinagepere. Mr. Hatch left Dinagepore about 1800; supposing the animal to have been 16 years of age at that time, it must have been 60 years old at the time of its death. The Bibes Saheb, who is herself nearly 100 years of ago, took the greatest care of it; and it was employed for many years, atall the respectable Mahomedan weddings about the town and country, in carrying the child or youth who was bridegroom." To this the statistical editor of the Civil Service Journal appends the following note: -"-Mr. George Hatch removed to Calcutta as second member of the Board of Revenue in February, 1793: the pony must, therefore, have been nearly 70 to The weak point in the above seems to me to lie in the phrase "supposing the animal to have been 16 years of age at the time. Still, we are led to infor that Mr. George Hatch had had the pony for a goodly number of years in his possession at Lingspore, during his term of Judgeship presumably. * * * At present the Tangon pony stands forth the O.d Parr of horse-flesh."

The Maharajah of Durbhangah has become the possessor of a suite of furniture which is absolutely unique, besides which its value is enhanced by the associations of bygona days. It consists of a card-table, four arm-chairs, two small teapoys, and a sofa the whole made of solid ivory. It is said to have been presented by Tippoo Sultan to Warren Hastings; and Sir George Birdwood is of opinion that this is probably the ease, as the head and naws of a tiger (the badge of the My-ore family) figure conspionously in the decorations of the chairs and sofa. Be this as it may, the furniture was undoubtedly the property of Warren Hastings, and remained at Daylesford till after his death, when it found its way into the collection of Lord Londesborough When this collection was sold at Christie's the furniture was bought by Messes. Wertheimer & Co., dealers in bric a-brac, for £1,500, and it was herajah. The card-table is of an oval shape, covered with the usual green cloth, which is edgest with gold embroidery. It has six legs, delicutely carried and gilt in an arabesque design. The side of the table is similarly decorated, and a monthing runs round the edge, carved in imitation of the scales of a date-palm, and touched with gold. The backs and sides of the armchairs are beautifully carved in fretwork, two in arabesque patterns, and two in designs of conventional flowers. The seats of the latter are richly decorated in gold and monochrome, with oriental scenery and figures, among which latter are more strange wild boasts than ever come out I the Ark. At intervals are medallions, carved miningwith quaint human heads. The arms of all Charles hese chairs end in ferocious-looking tigers licads, and the legs in tigers' paws. The quaint little tempoys are also righly carved and gilt. but call for no particular description. The sofa | Perak S is a beautiful work of art. The back is formed of slabs of solid ivory (with open spaces between) carved in fretwork, with alternate designs of "flower and palmieaves and acabesque patterns, all of those being richly gilt. The sides are carved and glit with a beautiful tracery of conventional flowers and birds. The arms end in tigers' heads and the front legs in tigers' paws. the whole being elaborately carved and gilt. The sofa and chairs were upholstered in blue eatin, with edgings of hand-painted flowers; but the weny and tear of more than a contury paye. real real real research and being the restore.
